Tuesday, October 1
“Measuring the quality of the retinal image over a wide field of view”
Larry N. Thibos, PhD, FAAO
Professor Emeritus
School of Optometry
Indiana University
Host: Ray Applegate

Monday, November 11
“Harnessing brain plasticity to improve vision in adults with amblyopia”
Ben Thompson, PhD
Professor & Associate Director for Research
School of Optometry and Vision Science
University of Waterloo
Host: Vallabh Das

Monday, December 9  (To be held in Room 267W)
“Exposure to visible blue light: A legitimate public health concern?”
John Lawrenson, PhD, FCOptom, MSc
Professor, Clinical Visual Science
Optometry & Vision Sciences
City University of London
Host: Jan Bergmanson

Monday, February 24
“The role of the tear film in dry eye disease: Latest updates on technologies”
Meng Lin, OD, PhD, FAAO
Professor, Clinical Optometry and Vision Science
School of Optometry
University of California, Berkeley
Host: Kathryn Richdale

Monday, March 30
“Exploring the role of the macula in glaucoma care”
Michael Sullivan-Mee, OD, FAAO
AAO Diplomate, Glaucoma
Eye Associates of New Mexico
Host: Nimesh Patel

For more information, contact Jason Porter at jporter@central.uh.edu